

What is the difference between EurepGap and NOP?

EurepGap's standards were developed by several European supermarket chains to create a common standard of farm management and certification of agriculture products. The NOP was implemented by USDA, to develop uniform standards for organically produced agriculture products. NOP regulations require that agriculture products labeled as "organic," originate from farms or handling operations that have been certified by a state or private entity that has been accredited by the USDA.

e-CFR